ITEMS FROM PUBLIC CONCERNING MATTERS NOT ON THE AGENDA:

Councilmember Liz Reilly wanted to notify all Commissioners about the Amazing Race event on October 17th. Requires a team of four to participate at a cost of $40.00 a team. Participants must be 18 years or older.

ITEMS FROM COMMISSIONERS

Commissioner Haynes was at the 99 cent store a few days ago on Huntington Dr. and Buena Vista St. and she witnessed two individuals about to get in a fight. Store employees contacted law enforcement but both men left prior to their arrival. She thought it was important to bring it to the attention of staff in attendance.

Commissioner Gardner would like to encourage Commissioners to form a team for the upcoming Amazing Race. It will be a fun event for all. In last month's meeting she asked Staff what actually happens in an emergency situation. She would like to see a presentation that explains the process along with information as to what the EOC is and what is its function.

Commissioner Frye asked staff for an update to the law enforcement impersonator that was recently reported. She also inquired if there was an update with the Mike's Food Shopping center and if there was any additional information available on a possible tenant to the vacant Ralph's store.

Commissioner Dinsmore thanked Staff for their hard work in the City especially with the transient riverbed issue. He inquired from Staff as to where Vulcan's boundary line stops. Additionally, he inquired if the Sheriff's Department would consider a DUI checkpoint in the city for the holiday season. Lastly, he inquired from staff about the possibility of putting an anonymous tip line on the city's website for code enforcement related complaints.

Commissioner Ur thanked Staff for doing such a wonderful job with ongoing projects and was grateful for their hard work.

Commissioner Hernandez- None
