ITEMS FROM COMMISSIONERS

Commissioner Dinsmore inquired as to whether the City provides lawn signage for those residents that complete the CERT training. He thinks it would be a great idea for residents or anyone visiting the City to know which properties are CERT trained. Commissioner Dinsmore asked Staff what the goals were for this Commission. Furthermore he inquired from Staff as to whether Contractor's that do work in the City have to abide by the same regulations as property owners as it relates to hauling of trash.

Commissioner Frye reported that she recently began her CERT training and is very happy with the number of attendees. It appears to be very interesting and she is looking forward to the upcoming classes.

Commissioner Haynes-None

Commissioner Hernandez-None

Commissioner Skinner wanted to report that he recently had a conversation with a resident on Bradbourne and she inquired as to the possibility of installing a crosswalk on Bradbourne and Royal Oaks at the entrance of the walking trail.

ADJOURNMENT

The meeting was adjourned at 7:42 p.m.
