ITEMS FROM STAFF

Public Safety Manager Larry Breceda informed Commissioners that the City of Duarte CERT Team has a Tri-City arrangement with the City of Monrovia and City of Bradbury and they are working on putting together a CERT movie night with both cities, which will be held in the City of Monrovia. Duarte CERT will also be hosting a HAM class in the next couple months. Dates will be provided when they are set.

ITEMS FROM COMMISSIONERS

Commissioner Bell-None

Commissioner Calderon reported that cars are parked too close to the Mt. Olive alley exit on Central Ave, which becomes a traffic hazard for those trying to exit the alley.

Commissioner Frye reported that the traffic lanes have been made so narrow for commuters during the re-surfacing project that is taking place on Mountain Ave just South of Euclid Ave. She also reported that she is hearing fireworks every single night in her neighborhood and she would like to know what could be done to prevent this from occurring. She suspects they are coming from the area of Hurstview St. and Broach Ave.

Commissioner Hernandez-None

Commissioner Oloteo-None

Commissioner Skinner-None

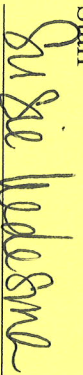

Commissioner Trainor asked Staff if there was an update with the Royal Oaks traffic light corrections.

ADJOURNMENT
